

I pay for XM's programming services because I travel long distances through remote areas that don't receive radio reception, as well as through cities where weather and traffic broadcasts are not readily available to me. Please don't let the NAB's power and influence take away this important service and decide what I am permitted to hear on satellite radio.

Sincerely,

Candyce L. Gleason